
The Wells

The first recorded mention of the pamphlet written in 1740 which refers of Builth. By 1830 both the Park W Wells (Sulphur) were well known. Du century and up until about 1930 larg Builth to "Take the Waters". Duri population probably doubled during houses built during this period show visitors" played in the economy of

The routine was to visit the Park Glanne Wells in the afternoon.

The old Guide Books of Builth alw Waters are much stronger than th Llanwrtyd Wells obtained all its Sa

The word "Wells" was added to "B 19th century. The Glanne Wells have The buildings were demolished some
The Park Wells, although not in us waters still flowing freely.